FLASHLIGHTS BLIND DIVER DROWNS IN IRON RAIL

Dr. Beebe and Party Have Troublesome Day Off Bermuda

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Aug. 28.—Blinded for a time by a powerful flashlight explosion, two members of the New York Zoological Society's deep-sea expedition spent an uncomfortable five minutes down around the bottom of the sea Monday.

For several minutes after the blinding flash, Dr. William Beebe and his assistant, Otto Burtis, could only grope sightlessly around the bottom of the sea in the darkness of the great iron ball in which they had been lowered 1,300 feet below the surface.

Sealed in their bathysphere, they had gone down to take photographs of the deep-sea monsters at that depth. But a short circuit exploded their four flashlight bulbs simultaneously—instead of singly—and blinded them.

By the time the explorers had been hauled back to the surface they had recovered their sight and were none the worse for their experience.

Placards Across Border From Germany Condemn Rule of Hitlerites

Following is the second of a series of various articles mailed by George Hamilton, European press correspondent of the Canadian Press.

INSBRUCK, Austria, Aug. 11.—From Munich, the train chuffs its way into the police station. Among these forest-clad mountains, Bavaria slips almost invisibly into the Tyrol. A placard is posted at the frontier town of Kufstein, a double examination of passports and a double inspection into currency, these are the first signs of the change. Unlike the language of the camp, yet not so quickly brought face to face with another world, the Austrian is a different world.

At the first train stop on the Austrian side of the frontier, the same placards are posted. A huge placard in red and black letters makes no secret of its contents. It is a placard which is a warning to the world, a warning to the world, a warning to the world.

HEDGING SALES

WINNIPEG, Aug. 28.—Hedging sales which for two weeks have pressed heavily upon the market, assumed the proportions of an avalanche today to send wheat futures prices sharply lower on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Values ended 1½-1½ cents down.

A last-minute recovery brought values up from the low points and the October future closed at 81 cents, December 82½, and May 84 cents. Earlier, the decline had extended to more than Country deliveries of new-crop wheat yesterday totalled almost 3,300,000 bushels, the heaviest day's receipts of the season.

Some demand for top grades of wheat again featured cash grains, but spreads in that market closed practically unchanged.

Coarse grains futures all closed sharply lower.

CUBS DECIDE AGAINST CHI CITY SERIES

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—On the theory that they might over-haul New York Giants and win the National League pennant, Chicago Cubs Monday decided to pass up the annual city series with the White Sox.

The White Sox won last year's series, so it was up to the Cubs to do the challenging.

The Cubs are still trying to win the flag and will continue to do so right up to the finish of the race, said President William Walker of the club, thus explaining the Cubs don't want anything like a city series on their minds during the stretch drive.

AMERICA'S CUP YACHT HISTORY OPENED IN 1850

Request of Englishmen Paved Way For Races Last Century

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—They were planning a great international regatta in England in 1850. With the idea of covering all ramifications of industrial endeavor, a group of British businessmen suggested to some New York conferees that they send an American fore-and-aft-rigged yacht to England as a specimen of what the United States had in the way of moderate-sized boats.

Racing was in its infancy in this country. The New York Yacht club was only in its seventh year but six of its members formed a syndicate, had a yacht, "The America," designed and built by George Sherr and sailed her across the Atlantic to Cowes.

BEATS 18 RIVALS
The America, weighing 10 tons, took on 18 member yachts of the Royal Yacht club and finished 18 minutes ahead of her closest pursuer, winning the classic quadrilateral trophy.

Seven years later, after discarding the idea of melting the trophy into a medal, the five surviving members of the syndicate offered the cup, valued at about $500, to the New York Yacht club as a perpetual trophy.

It was specified that it was to be the property of the club and that any yacht club should always be allowed, through one or more of its members, to claim the right to sail a match for it with yachts of not less than 30 nor more than 300 tons.

Since then the deed of gift has been changed twice, altered to favor conditions at the time of the gift, but the intent of the original owners, all of whom have passed on, has been strictly followed.

In this manner, the international racing series known as "The America's Cup Races" was conceived.

NEWSIES RALLY TO BEAT C.Y.P.
Coming from behind with an eight-run rally in the fifth inning, Avenue News continued their winning stride in the mid-summer softball league as they defeated Central Young Peoples by the count of 14-10 last night.

The Newsies were seriously threatened by C.Y.P. in the fourth inning, the latter rallying for nine runs. A change of twirlers with Gragg relieving Smith stopped the rampaging C.Y.P. and the Newsies beat just enough strength to hold on in the fifth for their eight runs and practically clinch the verdict.

Cal Caldwell, C.Y.P. backstop, featured in the big nine-run rally when he batted out a home run with three mates running the pathways, hitting a quartet of runs.

Ken Hamilton for the Avenue squad was the only other batsman to elude a circuit, running the pathway for his homer in the fourth inning.

The locals took a four-run lead until the seventh inning as Art Walker scored twice with his clever twirling. The ninth inning ended in a 3-5 deadlock, but a heavy attack upon O'Leary's twirling gave Redwater a five-run margin at the end of the tenth and a 10-5 victory.

Jack Colville and Bill Rungge Battle; Umpire Muffs Forekicks Game By 3-0 Score

By JACK DEAKIN
Fistic warfare in the sixth inning between Jack Colville and Bill Rungge caused an abrupt ending to last night's Big Five baseball tilt at Boyle street and resulted in North Edmonton Swifts being awarded a 3-0 victory over National Home Forekicks. The Northies were leading by a 1-0 score when Umpire Muffs called the game.

It was a thrilling contest for the pre-warriors and only by the assistance of Constable Jack Rungge could Colville and Rungge be separated from their foes and that caused their immediate dismissal from the game.

Awarding the game to North Edmonton was a sad blow for the Forekicks as it seriously threatened their chances for a play-off berth.

MRS. S. LEWIS OUSTED FROM GERMAN SOIL

Well-known Authors,
Loss to Find Reason

By MERVIN K. WHITEHEAD
PARIS, Aug. 28.—Dorothy Thompson, American newspaper and magazine writer, "indignant" to leave Germany, arrived here Sunday, advertising as "Chancellor Hitler is no longer a man, he is a religion."

Mrs. Thompson, in private life Mrs. Sinclair Lewis, wife of the novelist, was asked by the secret police to Berlin Saturday to leave the country immediately. Presumably an article she wrote three years ago when Hitler was still struggling to become "Der Fuhrer," gave offense to the Nazis.

She was of the opinion Sunday her expulsion "is evidence of a part of a campaign against foreign correspondents."

"Germany," the writer continued, "is a charming country, but it is becoming the most comfortable and most hygienic prison in the world."

Her husband's expulsion is a direct application of the system of "propaganda" Minister Goebbels, Mrs. Thompson said.

"He thinks the best way to control foreign opinion is to keep the press all information about Germany what does not emanate from him."

DISPLEASED HITLER
"I don't understand it. I haven't written any articles recently. I am almost certain the action was not against me. I was not allowed to leave Germany for three years ago. Several years ago the Jewish question also may have contributed to my expulsion."

"The propaganda ministry has been so anxious that it is a mistake to say she was 'expelled' from Germany, adding, 'she was only asked to leave.'"

Mrs. Thompson said she was told that if she did not leave at once police officers would escort her to the border.

Claim Socializing Not Successful In Blue Ridge Colony

That the Blue Ridge farm settlement scheme was generally regarded as a failure was the statement made by Angus D. Laing, inspector for the Ex-Service Men's Contact Committee, when he presented his report of an inspection trip made on Monday. The trip was made on the instructions from the chairman of the committee.

He reported that many of the families did not have a chance to succeed in the homesteads, and that they should be removed to other locations.

He found that there was lack of harmony among the men. Two of them had been quarrelling with their neighbor, the result is each man is working for himself and not for the community.

They could make little headway through lack of implements. The strained condition of the settlement precluded the exchange of implements.

This section of his report brought the remark from Alderman McCraith that "the socializing was not successful."

Alderman Ogilvie was of the opinion the families should be moved from the heavily timbered land to good agricultural districts and given a fresh start. He advised property owners headed by Wilfred

STORM BREKS WHEN JOBLESS MAKE DEMANDS

Grievances Aired by P.M.
M.A. Delegation Before
City Council

Monday night's meeting of the city council opened with a storm when a delegation from the Unemployed Married Men's Association presented a series of demands regarding working conditions, rates of wages and other concessions on the Jasper-Buff Highway project.

It started when Alderman J. H. Ogilvie asked the city council to take up the demands of the Communist group in the city for an explanation of one of the demands. Lakeman told the alderman that his time was limited and that he should not be interrupted. He was called to order by the chair.

The real squabble came while J. M. Matheson, secretary of the association, was making a request of conditions which the association considered should prevail at the camp before men were asked to go to work in them.

STORM BREAKS
Alderman R. V. Bellamy rose to make the suggestion that council had no control over the matters Alderman Matheson was bringing before the council.

Matheson kept right on with his demands. Alderman Bellamy ordered Matheson entered into an argument with the council.

Alderman Bellamy said, "You have used and abused your right," Alderman Ogilvie moved that Matheson be removed from the council chamber. Alderman Bellamy countered with the statement that he would not be removed.

Deputy Mayor East appealed to members of council for a hearing for the delegation. He suggested that leniency should be shown to those appearing before council to be grievous.

Alderman Bellamy said he had no objection to hearing delegations on questions which were in the control of council, but could see no reason why the delegation should be further heard.

He contended that the demonstration was made for publicity purposes, and not with any real intention of finding a solution to the unemployment problem.

ABUSED PRIVILEGE
Deputy Mayor East concurred in these remarks. He wanted the action of the delegation as a deliberate abuse of the privilege of the council and that the members of the delegation were well aware of the fact.
